

Fund for Shared Insight 2018 Gathering Survey Results

May 2018

ORSIMPACT.COM

Orientation to the deck

Fund for Shared Insight held its third Gathering in May 2018, bringing together over 300 leaders from foundations and nonprofits partnering to implement high-quality feedback practice as a way to elevate the voices of those least heard.

ORS Impact, as Shared Insight's learning and evaluation partner, implemented an online survey with attendees to assess the extent to which the Gathering fostered learning, inspired participants, helped build a feedback practice community, and engaged funders in learning about and supporting feedback practice. These slides show the results from the Gathering's evaluation survey for both Nonprofit Partners and Funders.

p. 3

Nonprofit Partners

p. 11

Funders

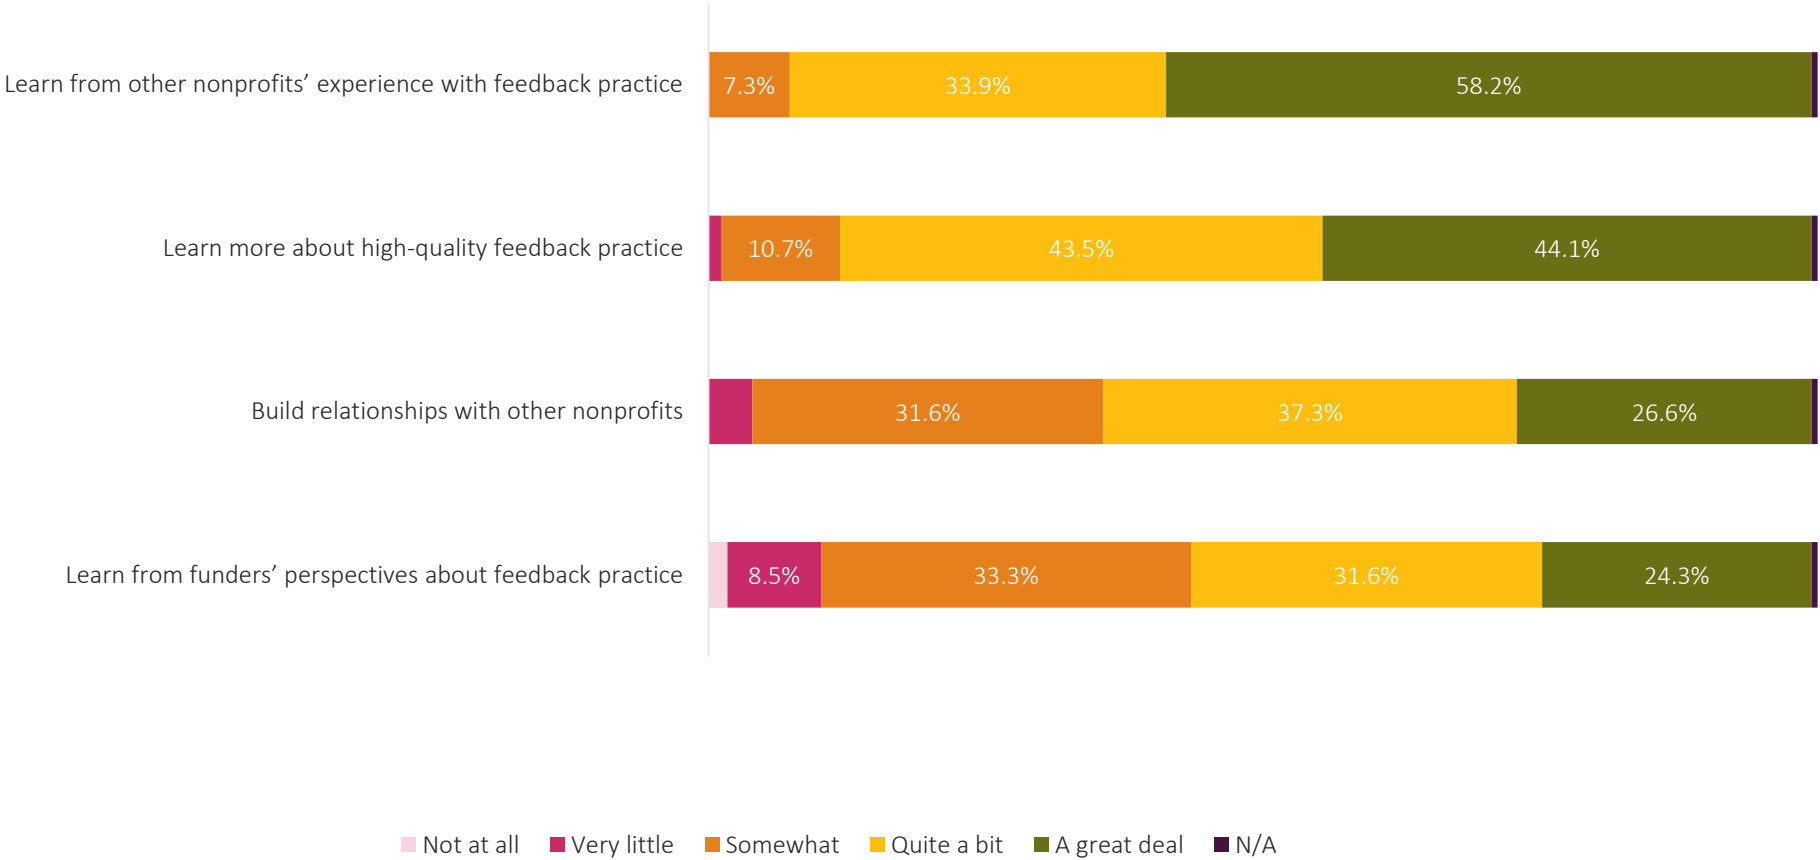

NONPROFIT PARTNERS

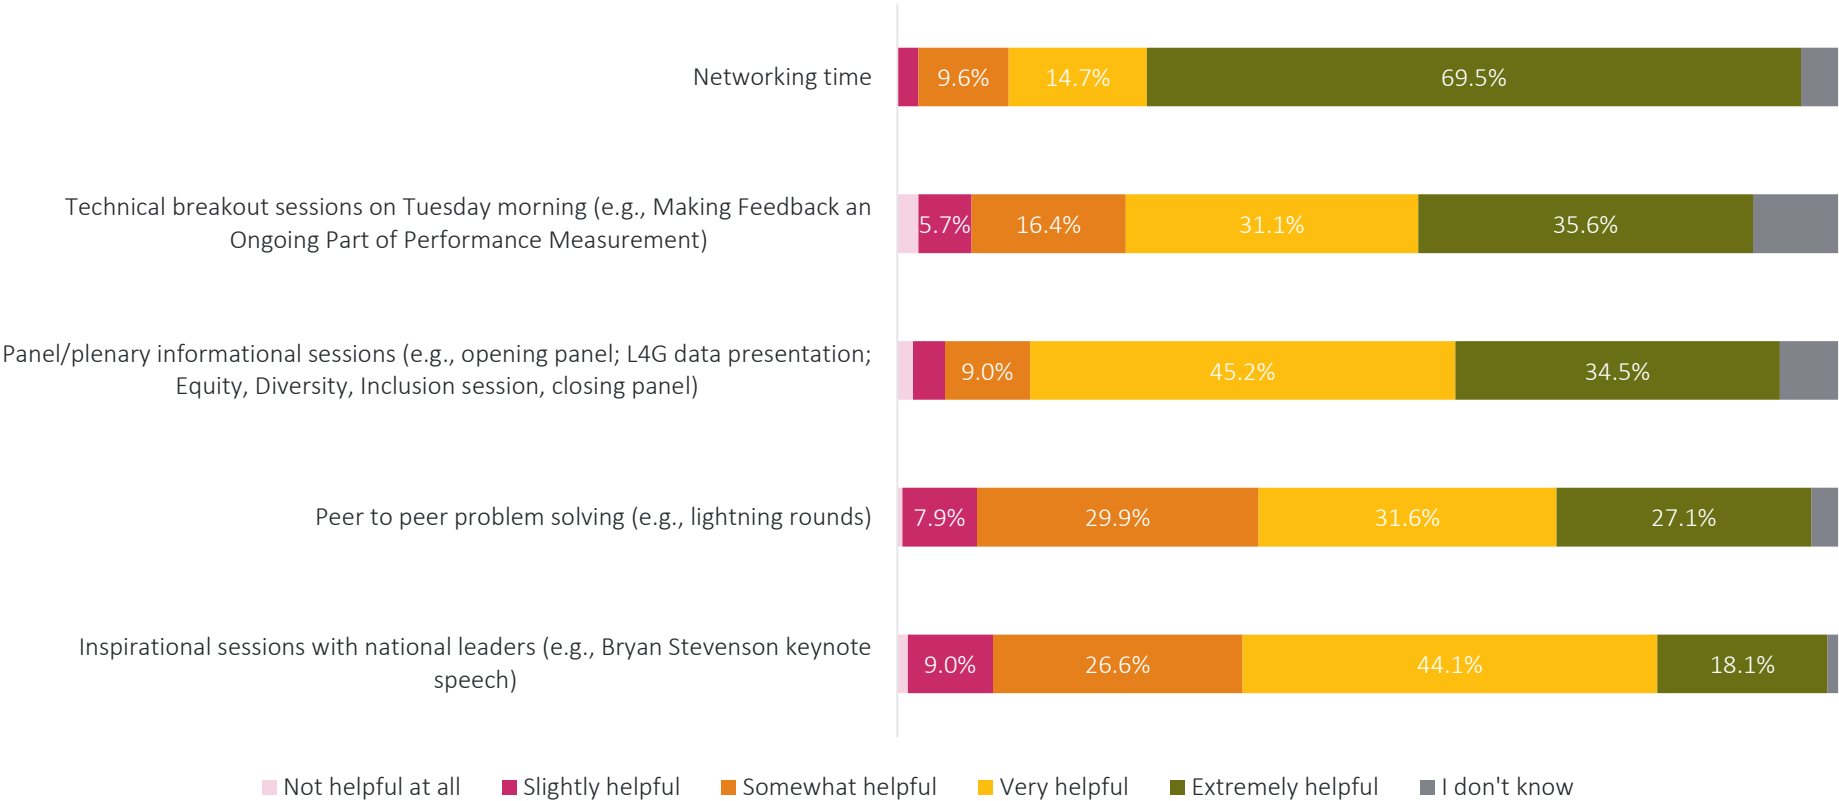

Response Rate: 61.7%

N: 177 out of 287

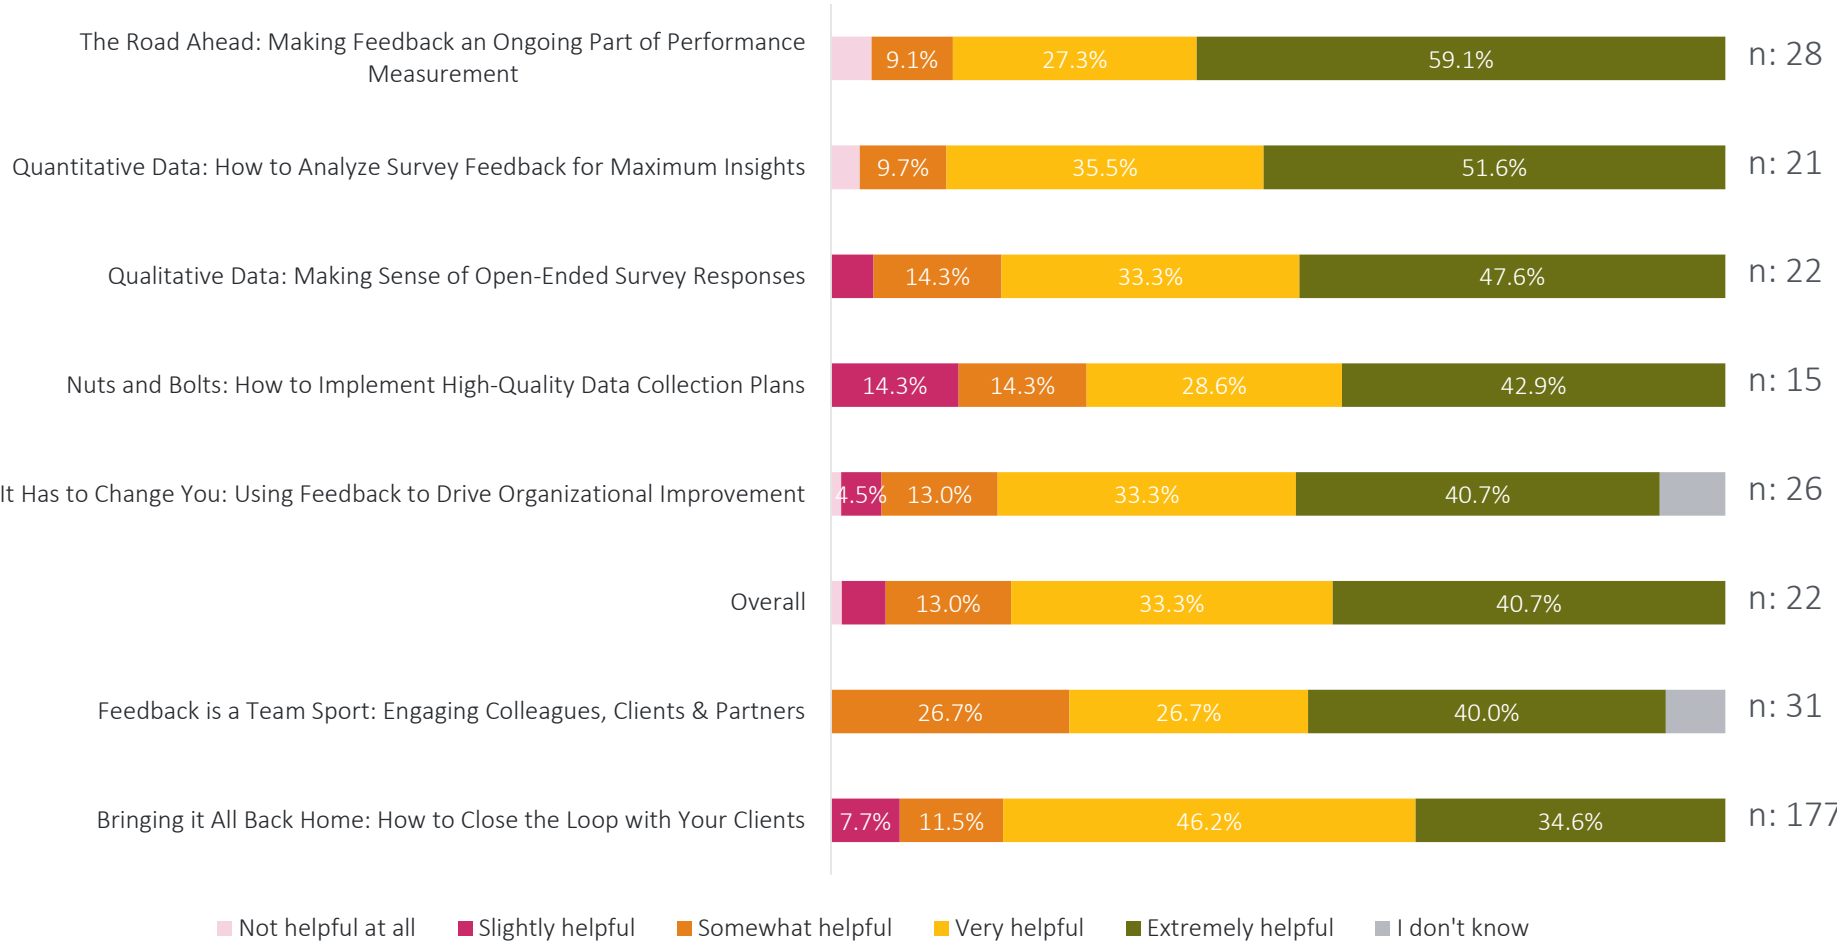

Q1. To what extent did the Gathering enable you to do the following?

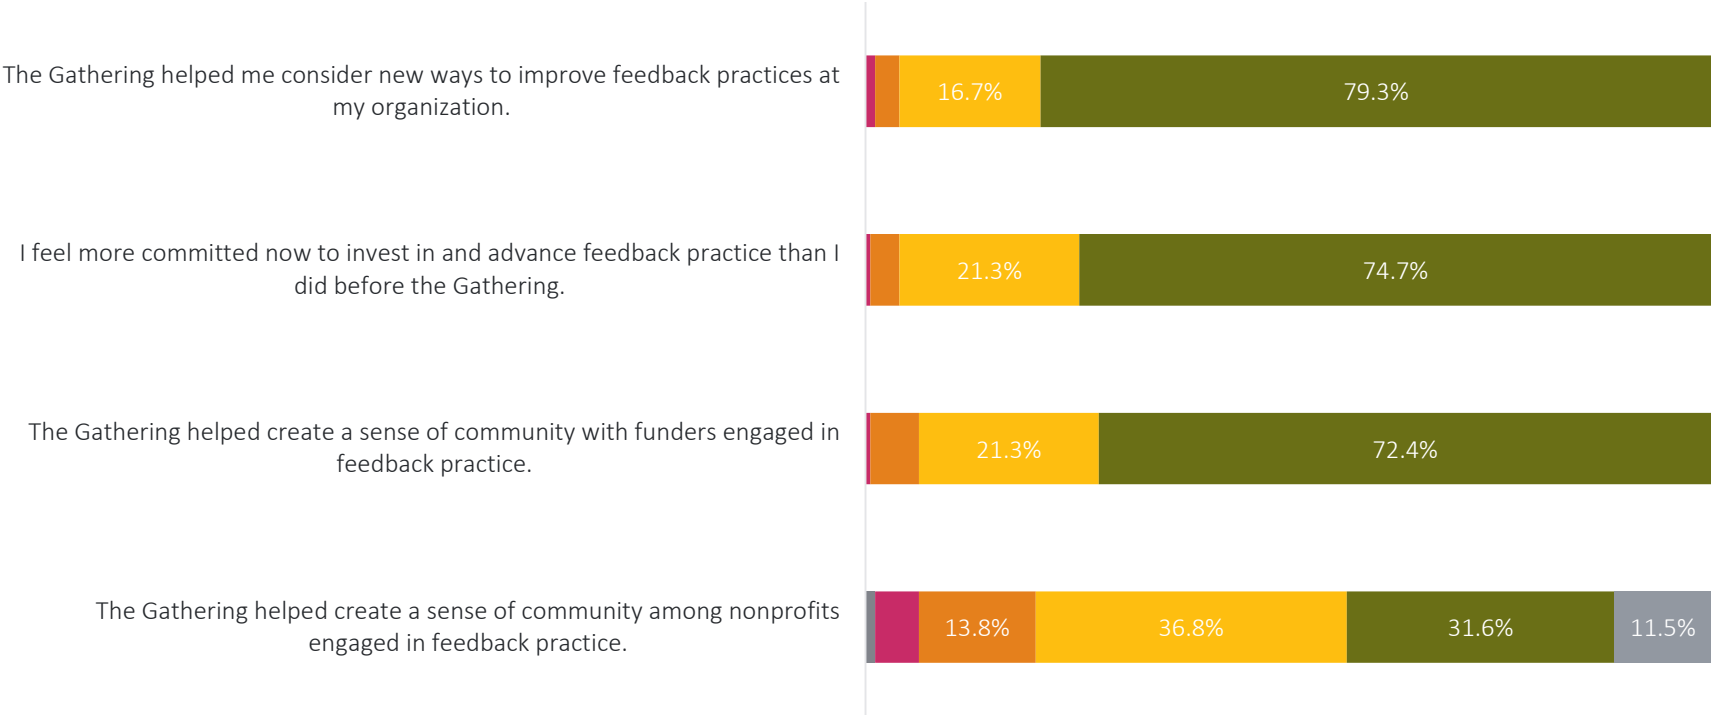

Q2. How helpful were the following components of the Gathering?

Q4. How helpful was the technical breakout session you selected?

Q5. To what extent do you agree with the following statements?

Strongly disagree Somewhat disagree Neither agree nor disagree Somewhat agree Strongly agree I don't know

Q6. Open-ended: What was the most surprising thing you learned at the Gathering?

- Respondents were most surprised by learnings about the L4G process, including the ways grantees are administering surveys, how they are closing the loop, and the pace of progress of feedback practice (22%).
- One in five respondents expressed being surprised by how organizations were having very similar experiences when implementing feedback practice. (20%)
- Other surprising learnings were related to organizational culture (15%), the depth and breadth of feedback work (12%), specific survey results (8%), technical aspects of implementing feedback practice (7%), specific feedback stories (7%), and equity, diversity, and inclusion (5%).

n: 123

Q7. Open-ended: Is there something else you would have liked to learn about feedback that was not discussed?

- Respondents would like to learn more about technical aspects of implementing feedback practice (21%).
- Another area for potential learning includes questions about the L4G process around data interpretation, overcoming challenges, closing the loop, and response rates (11%).
- Additional questions surfaced about how to share information or spread the work about feedback practice (8%), and equity, diversity, and inclusion (7%).

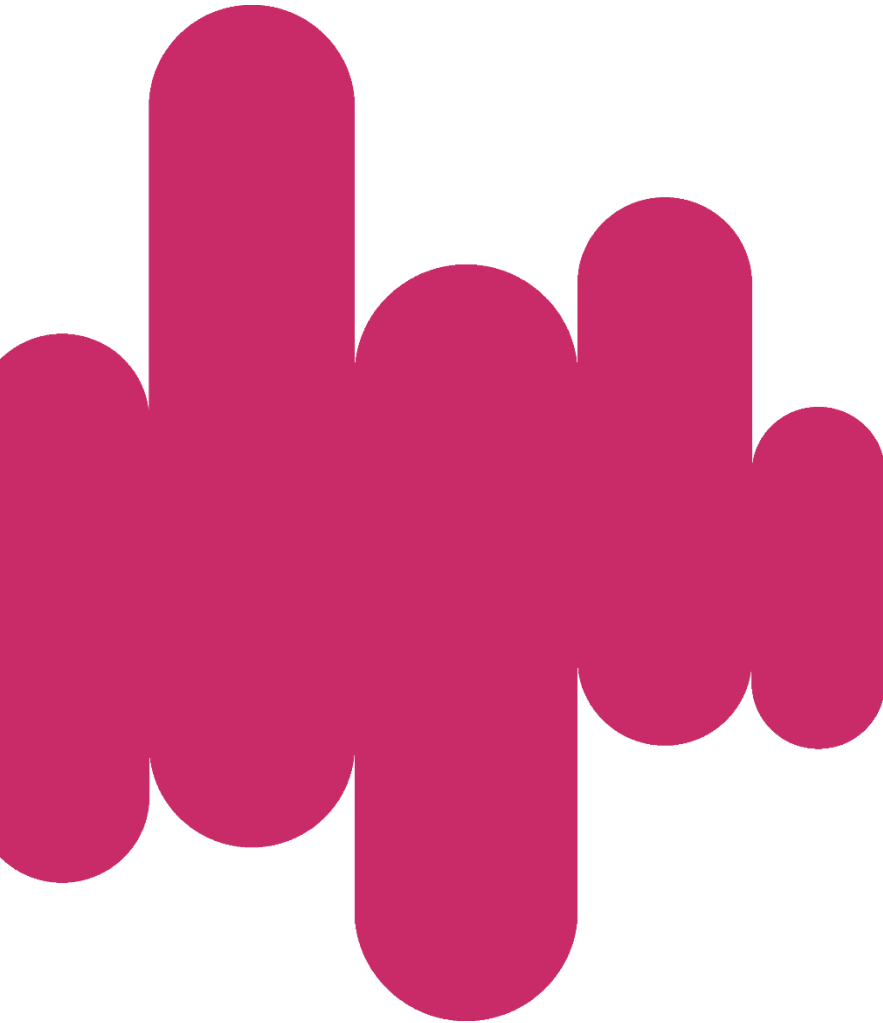

n: 106

Q8. Open-ended: How could the Shared Insight Gathering improve to better support your feedback work?

- The majority of respondents (60%) had insights about the design of the Gathering, specifically about grouping grantees differently for greater learning, adding more technical sessions or offering them at various times, having more networking time, and having more time in sessions.

Among the 60% of insights about the Gathering's design:
Group grantees by different characteristics	31%
Add more breakout sessions	19%
More networking time	9%
Longer times in breakout sessions	9%
Offer breakout sessions various times	9%
Amount of time for the Gathering	6%
Downtime between sessions	6%

n: 112

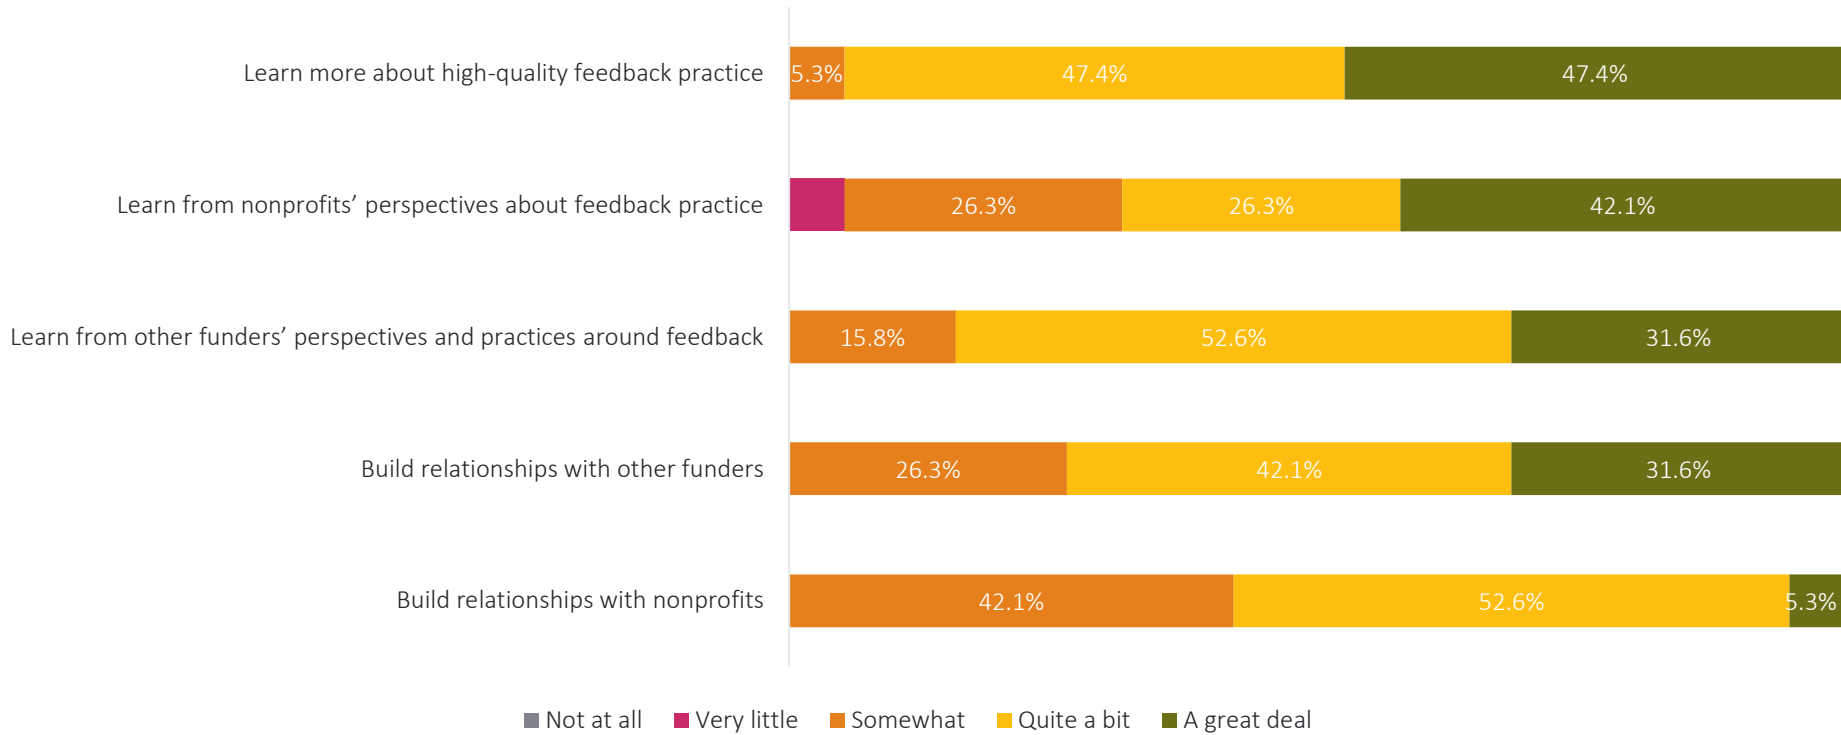

FUNDERS*

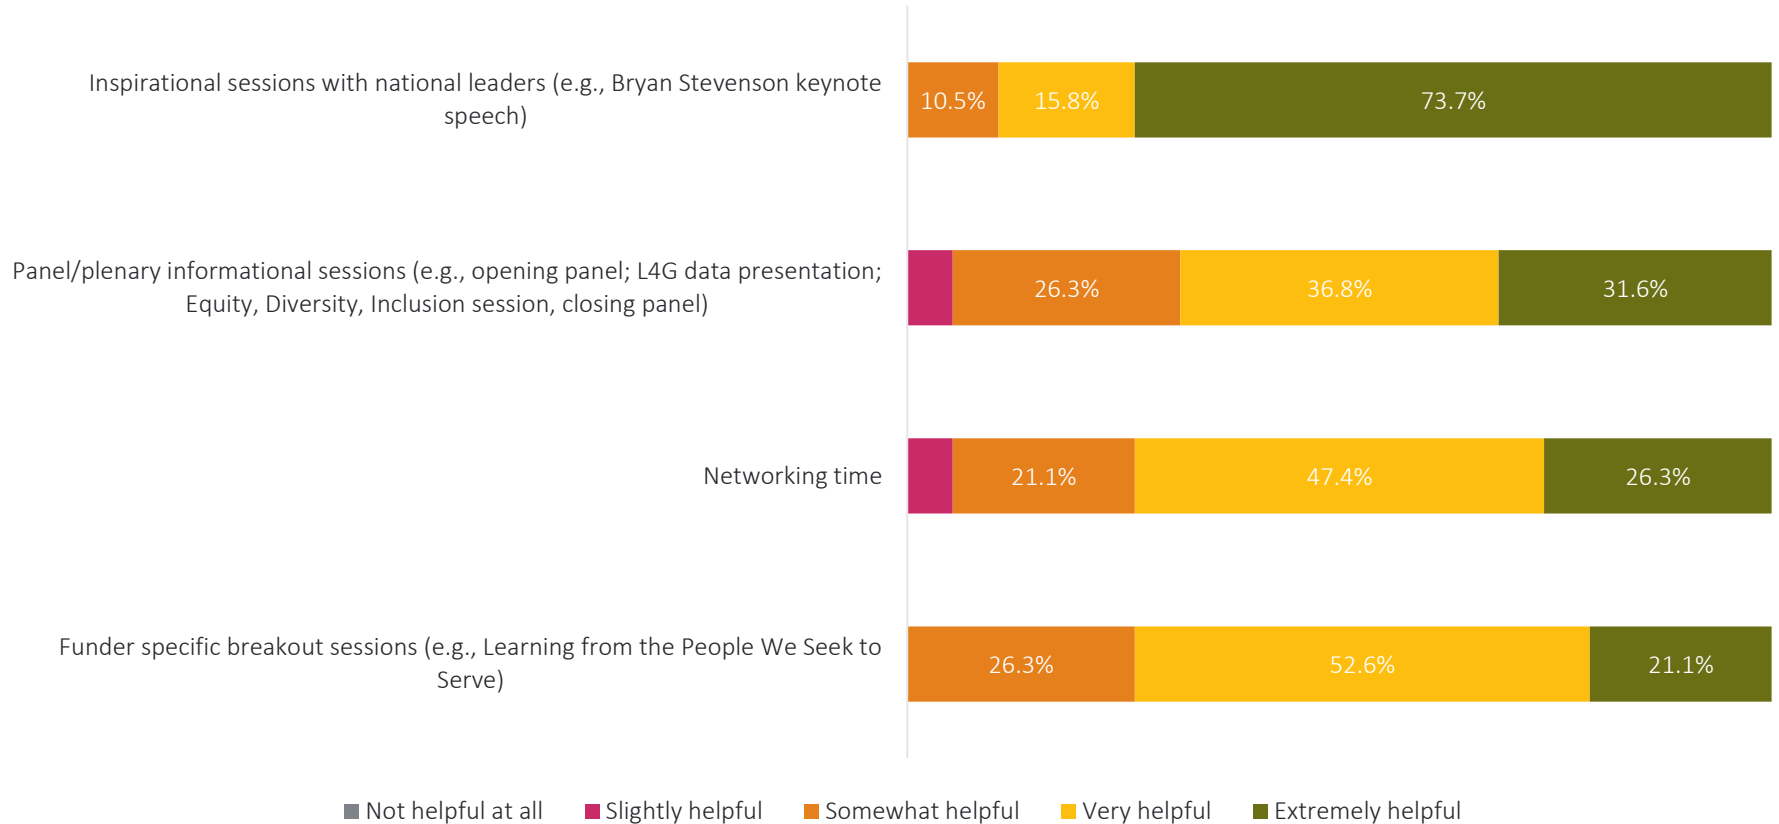

Response Rate: 39.6%

N: 19 out of 48

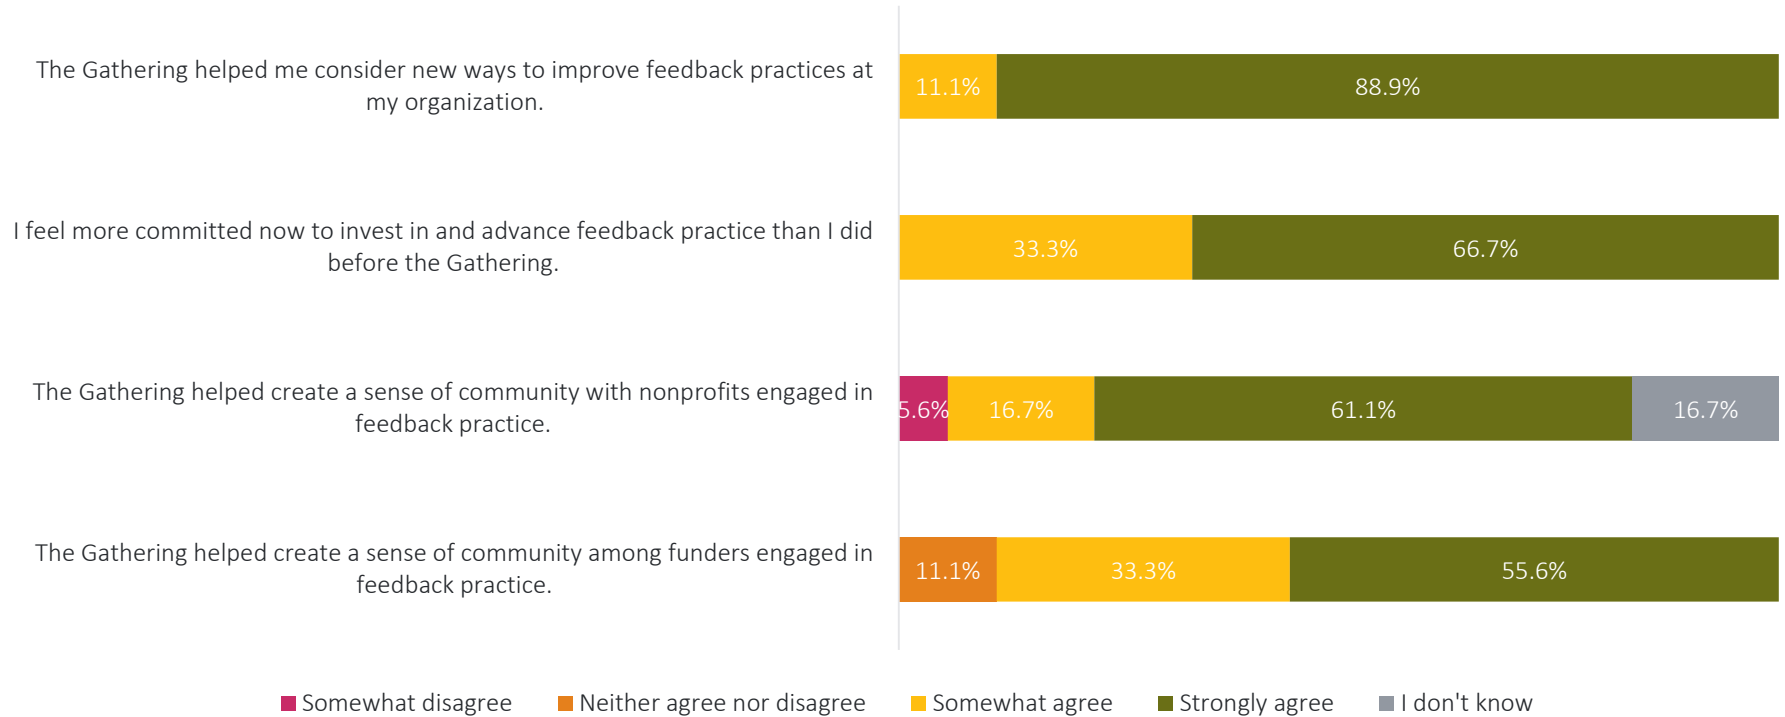

Q1. To what extent did the Gathering enable you to do the following?

Q2. How helpful were the following components of the Gathering?

Q3. To what extent do you agree with the following statements?

ORSIMPACT

Missions Accomplished